Definitions	"Affiliate" means any member of the Jensten Group of companies, which could be a subsidiary, a holding company or a subsidiary of that holding company as defined in section 1159 of the Companies Act 2006. "Consumer customer" means anyone acting outside their trade or profession in respect of the insurance cover requested or arranged. "You" or "your" means you and/or your appointed agent. "We" or "us" or "our" means Mathews, Comfort & Co Limited.
Who we are	Mathews, Comfort & Co. Limited is an insurance intermediary whose head office is at 9 North's Estate, Old Oxford Road, Piddington, High Wycombe HP14 3BE. We are registered in England & Wales and our company registration number is 00265103.
Who regulates us	We are authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority ("FCA") and our permitted business is to advise on, arrange, deal in and assist in the administration and performance of general insurance contracts. We are also permitted to provide credit broking services in arranging premium finance. Our firm's FCA reference number is 307605. You can check these details on the FCA's Register https://register.fca.org.uk/s/ or by phoning the FCA on 0800 111 6768.
Our services	As an insurance intermediary we generally act as your agent. We are subject to the law of agency, which places various duties on us. However, in certain circumstances we may act for and owe duties of care to other parties, including to insurers. We will tell you when these circumstances occur, so you will be aware of any possible conflict of interest.
	 We offer a wide range of products and services which may include: Offering you a single or range of products from which to choose a product that suits your insurance needs Advising you on your insurance needs Arranging suitable insurance cover with insurers to meet your requirements Helping you with any changes to your insurance you have to make Providing all reasonable assistance with any claim you make
	In some cases, we act for insurers under a delegated authority agreement. This can allow us to enter into insurance policies and issue policy documentation on their behalf. Where we act on behalf of the insurer and not you, we will tell you. We aim to always act in your best interest.
	As an intermediary and part of the Jensten Group of companies, we can offer a wide range of insurance products and have access to many leading insurance companies and the Lloyd's market. Depending on the type of cover you need, and where we have provided advice based on a personal recommendation, we will offer you a policy from either:
	We will tell you which of these applies before we arrange your policy and, if we have not undertaken a fair analysis of the market, we will provide you with a list of insurers considered on request.
	We may offer you a policy which is provided by an Affiliate to access specialist products and we will tell you if this is the case. We have a conflict-of-interests policy in place to identify and manage any conflicts that may arise in the placement of your business. If we become aware of a conflict we will tell you, explain the options available to you, and get your consent before we proceed.

	Before the insurance contract is concluded and after we have assessed your demands & needs, we will provide you with advice and make a personal recommendation of which policy is most suitable for you. This will include sufficient information to enable you to make an informed decision about the policy that we have recommended. We will give you a quotation which will itemise the cost of your insurance, including any fees that are payable in addition to the premium. This quotation will also include a statement of your demands and needs. You should read this carefully as it will explain our reasons for making the recommendation we have made.
Quotations	Any quotation we offer will normally be valid for a period of 30 days from the date it is given to you. We will tell you if this is not the case when we issue your quotation. We reserve the right to withdraw a quotation in certain circumstances, for example, where the insurer has altered their premium or terms for the insurance since the quotation was given or if a claim / incident has occurred since the terms were offered.
Policy Documents	You should carefully review the policy documents we send you to make sure they accurately reflect the cover, conditions, limits, and other terms that you require. You should pay particular attention to policy conditions and warranties as failure to comply with these could invalidate your policy. Claims can arise under certain types of insurance contract long after the policy has ended, so it is important that you keep safely all documents associated with your policy.
Claims	You must notify us or your insurer of any claim or circumstance that may or is likely to give rise to a claim under your policy, in accordance with the conditions of your policy. If you do not notify your insurer promptly it may entitle them to refuse to pay your claim. You should not admit liability or agree to any course of action, other than emergency measures carried out to minimise the loss, or in the interest of health and safety, until you have obtained agreement from your insurer. When you notify a claim or potential claim, you should provide details of all material facts concerning the incident. Your policy documentation will describe in detail the procedures and conditions in connection with making a claim.
	Where appropriate, and as set out in your policy document, we will help you in submitting a claim and obtaining reimbursement for you. We do not have any authority to handle or settle claims on insurers behalf. If claims payments are transferred to us, we will transmit these to you as soon as possible after they have been received on your behalf. However, if an insurer becomes insolvent or delays making settlement of a claim, we do not accept liability for any unpaid amounts.
Duty to disclose accurate and full information	It is your responsibility to take reasonable care and, when asked, to answer all questions fully and accurately before you buy an insurance policy, throughout the life of the policy and when you renew that policy. If you have made a deliberate, reckless or careless misrepresentation, insurers may have the right to change the terms of the insurance, reduce or refuse to pay a claim, or in some circumstances may be able to treat the policy as if it is never existed and at the same time keep the premium you paid, meaning any claims would not be paid and you would not get your money back.
	All statements and material facts disclosed on proposal forms, statements of fact, claims forms and other documents should be full, true, and accurate. Material facts are those that would influence an insurer in deciding whether to accept a risk and the terms and conditions they would apply. Where forms are completed or partially completed on your behalf, you are responsible for checking them for accuracy before signing. If you are in any doubt as to whether a fact is relevant, you should disclose it and then ask for guidance.
Paying the premium on time	Once your contract of insurance has been arranged, we will send you an invoice (also referred to as a debit note). You must pay the premium amounts shown in the invoice within the timescales it sets out. If you don't meet the payment date it may lead to the insurer cancelling your policy. We do not consider payment to have been received until we have received cleared funds in our bank account. If the insurer has specified that the premium must be received by a certain date and you do not pay us in time, it can result in automatic cancellation of your insurance policy.
How we are paid for our services	In most cases we are paid a commission by the insurer but, in some circumstances, we may charge you a fee instead of commission, or a combination of both. We will tell you how we will be remunerated for each policy we place for you before we arrange cover.

	and / or payment agreements you need. You also agree that we may hold to the order of the premium finance provider any claims monies due to you if you are in default of your credit agreement.
Looking after your premium (client money)	Client money is money that we receive and hold on behalf of our clients during the course of our dealings such as premium payments, premium refunds and claim payments. This money will be held either as agent of the insurer or as your agent, determined by the agreement we have in place with each insurer. Where money is held as agent of the insurer, this means that when we have received your cleared premium, it is considered to have been paid to the insurer.
	 The FCA requires us to hold all client monies, including yours, in a trust account, the purpose of which is to protect you in the event of our financial failure since, in such circumstances, our general creditors would not be able to make claims on client money as it will not form part of our assets. We hold all client monies with one or more approved banks, as defined by the FCA, in a Non-Statutory Trust bank account in accordance with the FCA client money rules. Under these arrangements, we assume responsibility for such monies and are permitted to, and may: Use such monies received on behalf of one customer to pay another customer's premium, before the premium is received from that other customer. However, we are not entitled to pay ourselves commissions before we receive the relevant premium from the customer; Withdraw commissions only as defined by the agreement we have in place with each insurer which will be either once we receive the relevant cleared funds from you or when we settle your premium to the insurer; and Retain for our own use, any interest earned on client money.
	When effecting a transaction on your behalf, we may pass your money to another FCA authorised intermediary in the UK. These firms are also required by law to hold clients' money in a separate trust account. We may pass your money to intermediaries resident outside the UK who are subject to different legal and regulatory regimes. If an overseas intermediary fails, this money may be treated in a different way from that which would apply if the money were held by an intermediary in the UK. Please tell us if you do not agree to this.
	Unless we receive your written instruction to the contrary, we shall treat receipt of payment from you and of any claim payment and/or refund of premium which falls due to you, as being with your informed consent to the payment of those moneys into our Non-Statutory Trust bank account.
Insurer security	Although we will always try to place your policy with insurers that are financially sound, we do not guarantee or otherwise warrant the solvency of any insurer we place your policy with. If you have any concerns about any insurer chosen to meet your insurance requirements, you should tell us as soon as possible and we will discuss them with you. If your policy is arranged with an insurer which becomes insolvent, you may still be liable to pay some or all of the premium.
Renewals	You will be provided with renewal terms in good time before expiry of your policy, or notified that renewal is not being invited. Unless you tell us otherwise, renewals are invited on the basis that there have been no changes in the risk or cover required, other than those specifically notified to us or your insurers during the course of the policy period (see section headed "Duty to disclose accurate and full information").
	It is very important that you check the information provided at renewal to confirm it remains accurate and complete. If any of the information is incorrect or if your circumstances have changed you should contact us immediately so we can update your details. If you do not notify us or your insurer of any incorrect information or change in circumstances, it may lead to your policy being cancelled or a claim rejected or not fully paid.
Mid-term transferred business	If your policy was arranged by another party and you decide to transfer administration of the policy to us after cover has started (mid-term), we will not be liable during the current insurance period for any loss arising from any errors or omissions or gaps in your insurance cover which were the fault of the arranging party, or for advice we did not supply to you. If you have any concerns about a policy which has been transferred to us, or if you want an immediate review of your insurance arrangements, you must tell us straight away. Otherwise, we will review your insurance arrangements and advise accordingly as each policy falls due for renewal.

Cooling off period and Cancellation	You have the statutory right to cancel a policy within 14 days of the cover start date or renewal, or from the date you receive your policy documentation if this is later. This right means that you can cancel the policy in accordance with its terms and conditions without providing a reason. If you want to exercise this right and cancel a policy, you must tell us before the 14-day cancellation period ends.
	If no premium has been paid, you may still be charged the premium for the time you have had cover, inclusive of Insurance Premium Tax ("IPT"). In addition, we will charge any relevant fee as set out in these Terms of Business, solely to cover our administration costs.
	These cancellation rights do not apply to a short-term policy of less than one month's duration or to a policy for which the performance has been fully completed, for example because you have made a claim.
	If the terms and conditions of your policy allow for cancellation after the 14 days has finished, short-period cancellation rates may apply. If you have made a claim against the policy prior to cancellation, the full annual premium will remain due, and you will not receive a refund of any premium you have paid.
	If your policy is paid via a premium finance facility and they ask us to cancel the policy, for example, because you have defaulted on your monthly payments, we will undertake this action, but we will be acting as your agent in the process.
Termination of these Terms of Business	You or we can terminate our authority to act on your behalf by giving the other party at least 14 days' notice in writing (or such other period we mutually agree). Termination is without prejudice to any transactions already started by you, which will be completed according to these Terms of Business unless we agree otherwise in writing. You will remain liable to pay for any transactions or adjustments effective before the termination and we will be entitled to retain any and all commission and/or fees payable in relation to insurance cover placed by us prior to the date of written termination of our authority to act on your behalf.
	Once our authority to act on your behalf has ended, we will no longer provide claims assistance for any unsettled claims against the policy. We will however cooperate in transferring copies of any claims records we hold to which you are entitled, if you instruct us to in writing.
Making a Complaint	Our aim is always to provide you with the best possible service, but we recognise that sometimes things go wrong, or we may fall short of your expectations. If you are unhappy with our services and want to make a complaint, you can do this in writing (post or email) or call us. Please contact the Complaints Manager at Mathews, Comfort & Co. You may be entitled, therefore, to compensation from the FSCS if we are unable to pay a valid claim made against us.
